Admiral Stansfield Turner, Director Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.C. 20505.

Dear Admiral Turner:

I am writing to extend an invitation to a qualified member of your staff to participate in a panel at the forthcoming International Studies Association annual meeting, which will be in Washington D.C., February 22--26, 1978. A major sub-theme of that meeting -- which I am/ coordinating, as Chairperson of the Human Rights Internet of the ISA-is on human rights. The panel on which we would welcome CIA participation is one entitled: "Dialogue with the Police and Military on Dissemination and Use of Technologies of Repression and Interrogation."

We have three papers committed for that panel: one by Elizabeth Landis of the United Nations Commission on Namibia -- "On Use of Technologies of Repression and Interrogation in Namibia"; one by Robert Boettcher, Director, Korean Investigations, Sub-Committee in International Organization -on "Korean/American Relations"; and a third by Robert Borosage, Center for National Security Studies -- on "The Implications for U.S. Foreign Policy of the Dissemination of Technologies for Repression: The Role of the Intelligence Community."

To respond to these papers, and to dialogue with the panelists and the audience, we hope to have not only a representative from the CIA, but also from the FBI, the International Association of Chiefs of Police, and the School of the Americas.

We very much hope that you will be interested in the CIA's participation in this dialogue. (The exact date and time of the panel has not yet been set but we can inform you of that within a few weeks.) We look forward to hearing from you,
